Grounds	We have been looking for a nice piece of land for so long. Finally something comes along that gives us the space we're after, and now there is a petition to stop it? We are in a housing crisis, and new housing is being blocked. I find it very arrogant that the locals that are trying to stop the project are only able to live in that area because someone developed their land for them. But now they dont want anyone else to live there? Absolutely selfish and hypocritical. I hope common sense prevails on this one, it's been so hard to find the right place.
